DECOTO TO HOLD BELATED ELECTION OF COMMISSIONER

May 5th Is New Date Set
For Forgotten
Election

Decoto was scheduled to hold an election for fire commissioner on April 7, but forgot, consequently no election was held and William Hurst, fire commissioner was out of office and no one was elected to take his place, and he had not been re-elected. This event had been announced, supplies for it had been purchased and sent to the election board. When the great day arrived no one remembered to hold the election and everyone else forgot to vote.

Decoto was undecided what to do, and a letter was sent to Earl Warren, district attorney, asking his legal advice. In this communication it was also asked that all minor elections be consolidated because too much time and expense resulted from three or four within two weeks. There is seldom a contest between candidates and many in the community feel that it is an imposition to ask the election board to sit around all day for a few dozen votes.

Fire Commissioner Hurst found himself in office again without the formality of an election. He understands from this that he is quite satisfactory in his official position for no complaint has been voiced by the people. However, it has been decided that on May 5 an election for fire commissioner will be held, and William Hurst is the candidate up for re-election. No other candidate has been announced.

Other commissioners are A. A. Amaral, and Ray McNulty. Roland Bendel is fire chief.

Miss Dorothy Butler, of Oakland, was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. Guy Lucas.

BABY HOSPITAL TO SPONSOR PARTY IN J. C. SHINN GARDEN

A meeting of the Baby Hospital was held Monday, April 28, and Mrs. J. R. Whipple, chairman, presided. This was given at the home of Mrs. J. C. Shinn, who was hostess. No guests were present, only regular members.

Tentative plans for the annual garden party of the Baby Hospital were extensively discussed. This affair will be given in the garden of J. C. Shinn estate, which is customary. Not all the committeewomen have been appointed who will have charge of this important social event of Washington Township.

Each year there are several booths artistic and unique in arrangement. These annually present various and delightful surprises for those attending. A program is also a usual feature—children and often talented people appearing. Games are played, and in past years riding horses have been available for the party. A fish pond is always very much in evidence, to the delight of the children—many pleasant surprises awaiting them.

NILES CIVIC BODY VOTES ON PETITION FOR NEW MAIN CURBS

FORD YACHT RUNS LONG BEACH- S. F. RACE

The fast motor yacht, Ariquepa, owned by William H. Ford, of Niles, competed in the Long Beach-San Francisco race, held in conjunction with the Pacific Coast boat show, which was opened April 23.

William D. Patterson, of Arden, near Newark, was present as Mr. Ford's guest.

This event was the longest ocean cruiser race in the United States; covering a distance of 447 miles in three laps with control stops at Santa Barbara and Monterey. The boats finished about the same time, and Mr. Ford's yacht was reported to have finished in third place.

SEWERS AND CATCH BASINS INSTALLED ON NILES STREETS

Niles street paving is progressing satisfactorily as time passes and up to date about one-third of the work has been completed as catch basins, to relieve the overflow from the storm sewers, are laid. Streets are being graded and graveled, and at present about three-fifths are rolled in preparation for final gravel, and oil.

This work is done under supervision of J. D. Gomes, roadmaster, and H. B. Rathbun is inspector. O. B. Comfort, of Hayward, is installing catch basins, and H. Shriver, of Broadmore, Oakland, is in charge of oiling and grading.

Mr. Rathbun, when interviewed by the Register reporter, stated that the road crew expected to start oiling process May 6. He also said that private citizens of Niles were having sidewalks and curbs laid in front of their property, and that any others wishing this service should get in communication with contractors doing this work.

Mrs. J. Whipple Assists At Luncheon on Friday

Two People Wounded When Man Shoots Up Pool Hall

C. Martinez, of Decoto, was taken to the office of Dr. E. C. Grau, of Niles, at 4 A. M. Sunday morning, to receive treatment for gunshot wounds in his right forearm. Several bones were fractured.

Martinez was accompanied by Francisco Revelez, also of Decoto, who was suffering from gunshot wounds in his left arm.

According to reports both men were victims of circumstances; being innocent bystanders when Refugio Rodrigues, of Decoto, became quarrelsome and began shooting a revolver in the Decoto Pool Hall.

An attempt was made to capture Rodrigues, but following the shooting he disappeared, leaving his car, an Essex, standing on the main street of Decoto. Officials are searching for him, and his capture is expected soon, it was said.

MAN DIES AFTER FALL OFF BICYCLE ON MISSION ROAD

He was riding a bicycle, and in hitting the fence he was thrown to the ground sustaining a fractured skull and jaw and numerous other injuries.

Joyle was taken immediately to the emergency hospital in Niles, where he was treated by Dr. E. C. Grau. Following this he was transported to Highland hospital, Oakland, where he expired at an early hour Sunday morning, April 27.

High School Band Combates At State Contest Saturday

Washington Union High school band went to Sacramento Saturday, April 26, to participate in the state band competition, in which they placed sixth in B class. In addition to the 110 student players a group of township people and members of the school faculty were in attendance. They were as follows: E. B. Hodges, principal; John Kimber, instructor; W. E. Gravestock, J. B. Hill, Burton D. Wood, Ada Jane Roberts, J. P. McClellan, Mrs. Elsie Madrugra, Mrs. Eva Steinhoff, Mrs. E. P. Antron, J. Vernon Gould, E. E. Carroll, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Ellsworth.

In an interview Mr. Ellsworth reported that while the boys and girls did not win a prize, they won the high esteem of the Sacramento people, and were commended by the hotel staff, where they stopped, for their excellent deportment.

And Principal E. B. Hodges said:

"The people of Washington Township have paid a very high tribute to the township band by raising approximately $1,000 with which to send the band to Sacramento to the state contest. The band and the high school administration wish to sincerely thank all who in any way helped to make possible this wonderful trip."

The high school administration also wants to assure the people of Washington Township that the students representing the township in the band were the best behaved and most gentlemanly and lady like of any of the groups represented at Sacramento.

"On a number of points in judging the contest our band stood among the highest but because of the lack of experience and the short time they have been training the tonal quality was noticeably weak. In instrumentation, intonation and expression our band stood exceedingly high. The trip to Sacramento has developed a determination within the band that each one will do all possible to develop tonal quality so that next year they may win the trophy. This is not too much to hope, for the school which won first place this year in our class stood eighth in the contest last year."

"The experience was exceedingly worth while from an educational standpoint. Some of our students had never ridden on a train or stopped at a large hotel. They have broadened their experience, gained in determination, and proved themselves worthy of every confidence of the people of Washington Township. We are proud of them!"

Sending the school band, the largest of its kind in the state, to this contest, advertised Washington township widely. Much

EDITORIAL COMMENT

A FOOTBALL OF POLITICS.

The Township Register has mighty little patience with Fitts' candidacy for the governorship in view of the fact that unmistakable evidence connects him with the Harry Chandler political dynasty of the south. But that impatience does not preclude any satisfaction that we may get from the successful prosecution of the Julian watered-stock perpetrators.

The whole affair, so auspiciously begun seems to have degenerated into pure politics, to the powerful advantage of dishonest men who filched the investor of millions. The possible conviction of the major criminals—and they are criminals, and as such should be so called rather than by the softer expletive of malefactors—seems remote, due to action taken by Fitts' advisers and Young's partisans.

Fitts, instead of conducting the matter along the line of legal procedure, saw fit to have a confessed criminal draw the governor into the matter. The witness, who had been promised immunity, testified that $200,000 of Julian money had gone into the campaign to aid the election of Young with the understanding that Friedlander be appointed corporation commissioner. The object of the appointment, according to the witness, was to assure that questionable promotional enterprises would be sanctioned by the corporation commission, and Friedlander, it was understood, would "stand without hitching."

That statement, of course, no one believed. Young is not a strong man, but certainly he is not dishonest. Fitts, apparently, had this testimony taken to injure his opponent in the governorship contest. The result was a boomerang, naturally.

But Fitts was not the only one who endangered the successful prosecution of the indicted parties in the oil scandal by personal politics. Young partisans, with more enthusiasm than high-mindedness, succeeded in getting a Los Angeles judge to re-indict Berman, the immunity witness, upon whose testimony the district attorney's office hoped to convict those who wrecked the Julian Oil Company. Upon the new indictment, the Los Angeles jurist put Berman under $250,000 bond. The man was already under $50,000 bond. Consequently, Berman went to jail, and is no longer available as a witness against many men high in the business and social world of Southern California. It looked like politics, inspired from Young quarters. It was BAD POLITICS.

The result is that the people—honest government—will lose again.

And the mud smears Fitts and Young headquarters, and the goddess of justice reaches out her scale in vain.

Oh, for a statesman in this crucial period of California! Cannot another Johnson be cast in the mould of democracy out of the millions of intellectuals of California? Is there no one that can sink personal aggrandisement for the good of the collective whole?

Oh, for a MAN. We search the political horizon for a leader who can lift the state out of corruption, out of promotional banditry—a leader who can break the chains of the commission hierarchy that is trampling ruthlessly the will of the people, and rendering opinions always pleasing to entrenched monopoly.

Can it be that MAN is Rolph?

APPLY THE SLIPPER.

WE ARE WORRYING about Lindberg's wife and a little about Lindberg. Some way or other we think he is wrong in taking that little girl on these experimental flights. Naturally we admire that multi-millionaire's daughter for sharing danger with her famous lord. She is a game miss, and while she might have married the boy because of the glamor of fame that entwined his name, doubtless she now loves him to distraction. Otherwise would she continually take chances with him in the air, a sphere still a great distance from being conquered by the mechanical science of man.

While we breathe a prayer for this mighty fine

Ability to Acquaint Public With Goods Is Due to Publicity

Why is it that if you look into the average American home today, you find the housewife able to have more time in which to enjoy the pursuit of personal pleasures? "Modern labor-saving inventions," you will reply. And the answer is correct.

Most of us can remember when the laundry was hand washed, the rooms hand swept by slow tedious hours of work. But ten or twenty years ago there opened an era of mechanical inventions designed for the purpose of lightening and quickening household work, and the speed with which these things were distributed to the public was miraculous as compared to the difficulties which confronted Elias Howe, for example when he invented the sewing machine.

Howe had no advertising to aid him in acquainting people with his machine, and as a consequence, only those in close proximity to him knew about it. Few were sold, and the price was high. So, instead of reaping the reward which his invention deserved, Howe died penniless.

Today news of new inventions and labor saving devices such as electric appliances of all kinds, washing machines, vacuum cleaners and a host of other articles is given to the buying public by means of advertising.

The desire to own these new things soon spreads over a wide area, and the resulting public demand causes manufacturers to increase production in order to meet the demand. This increased production opens the way for a reduction in price which in turn brings these various articles within the buying range of still more people. The purchasing power of this new group again speeds up production and once more a resulting lower price brings other consumers into the buying field.

If it were not for advertising, the knowledge of these labor-saving pieces of household equipment could not be given as rapidly or over as great an area. Consequently, the sale of the products would be materially slower with the corresponding higher cost.

The benefit to humanity in bringing these labor saving devices within the purchasing range of the average housewife is reflected in the greater ease and speed with which the work at hand may be accomplished with the resultant increase in more leisure moments for the pursuit of personal pleasures and enjoyment.

Buster Keaton, the screen's famous "frozen face," will break his silence in the gayest comedy M-G-M has filmed, "Free and Easy," opening Friday at the Fox Oakland theatre.

Better than a personally conducted tour of the movie studios is this romantic all-talker of Hollywood. The story begins back in Gopher City where Buster is a happy and contented garage mechanic. Then Anita Page wins a beauty contest and Buster is elected to escort "Miss Gopher City" and her mother (Trixie Friganza) to Hollywood where fame and fortune supposedly await. Everything goes topsy turvy, nothing turns out as expected and the ending provides a big surprise.

Eddie Peabody, the banjo maniac, will be back for another week at the Fox Oakland and Fanchon and Marco's barbaric and brilliant "Gypsy Idea" will be the stage attraction. Gue Chase, who eats everything from burning cigarettes to celluloid collars, is slated as the star, and other unusual features will include a Punch and Judy show and the Sunkist Beauties as taut wire walkers. Hermie King will be in charge.

ALL MILK MUST PASS INSPECTION

Ordinance Approved By Pleasanton Council Assures Pure Milk

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY
Increase in Price May Result From Raising of Standards

Inspection of all milk, cream and milk products sold in Pleasanton was authorized this week by city council when it finally passed the milk ordinance which it had been considering for more than a month. The ordinance calls for the creation of a milk inspector's position and outlines the rules and regulations for systematic inspection of all milk disposed of in Pleasanton.

The inspection will include milk, dairies, creameries, pasteurizing plants, milk products and dairy herds.

In every detail the ordinance is complete and when it goes into effect within the very near future it will provide the residents of Pleasanton with the assurance that every drop of milk purchased in the city will be of a high standard and conform with each and every phase of the pure food laws.

The milk ordinance was first presented to council for its consideration on March 3, by Councilman Thomas J. Orloff, chairman of the Judiciary committee. After having given council a week in which to consider the measure, Councilman Orloff officially introduced it at the meeting held March 10.

In the week which had elapsed the ordinance had been revised to conform with certain Pleasanton situations, and the fees adjusted to meet requirements there. Owing to the fact that Livermore had tabled its milk ordinance at its previous meeting, the city council followed the same action after having permitted it to be given its first reading.

At the meeting this week the ordinance was presented for its final reading and passage which was taken with council voting unanimously.

After the milk inspection becomes a fact the price of milk in Pleasanton will almost automatically advance in price, at least one cent per gallon as the inspection fee will be one-half cent per gallon.

It was felt by council, however, that none would object to the increased price when they are assured that the milk they received is of the purest quality possible.

A penalty of a fine of $300 or imprisonment of 90 days or both were fixed for the violation of the provisions of the ordinance.

Milk inspection in Pleasanton will not work a hardship on local dealer, it was pointed out, as the law requires that every dairy sending milk into the city must have a license issued by Pleasanton and be under the same supervision as the dairymen and creameries within the city limits.

The ordinance is far reaching in its scope and outlines the sanitary conditions and methods under which creameries may operate; the kind of containers milk may be shipped in; the temperature milk must be kept while on display for sale and many other minor matters which will bring about the assurance of pure and wholesome milk for the residents of Pleasanton.

Hemet—$18,000 bond issue will be voted on to provide funds for fire department improvements and street equipment.

CYCOL

IN SPITE OF NEW OILS THAT COME AND GO, IN FACE OF CLAMOROUS CLAIMS OF COMPETITORS, EVERY YEAR—YEAR AFTER YEAR—THE USE OF CYCOL INCREASES

On the sea, in the air, over highways where men look to motors and motors to oil, you'll find Faith in Cycol. Unfailing in performance. "Endurance Beyond Belief."

"After thousands and thousands of miles of operation on Cycol a motor shows complete absence of scoring, a minimum of wear, entire lack of sludge or other gummy deposits and a minimum of carbon." Manager of Research and Development Associated Oil Company

These five steps make this truth possible:

1. The new Edeleanu treatment process removes 14% more impurities than does the commonly used acid-treating method—hence more lubrication—more protection for your motor. Cycol is a pure oil.
2. Cycol is distilled under high vacuum rather than the severe high temperature methods. No vital elements are weakened. All fractions are uniform. Cycol will not evaporate, thin, or break down.

3. The closest of fractionation during distillation rejects light, volatile fractions and heavy, gummy elements. No motor oil forms less carbon than Cycol.

4. Cycol is made only from specially selected crude oils. They are separately transported and separately stored at the refinery.

5. Only the "heart cut" is used in making Cycol.

Cycol gives complete, unfailing lubrication; yet no oil is more economical, for Cycol has Endurance Beyond Belief. The price of Cycol is 25c per quart.

LOCAL GIRLS TO PRESENT FASHION SHOW MAY 16th

A fashion show is to be given by the sewing department of Washington Union High school, Friday night, May 16, and will be presented in the auditorium of the school. Approximately sixty models will take part this year, and the dresses are the products of first and second-year classes. Various styles will be on display, mainly winter, school, sport, afternoon and evening dresses.

Under the direction of Eleanor All, chairman, invitations are being sent to different schools in Alameda county and San Jose, this being a usual custom.

"Not all girls in the classes will be in the show," stated Mrs. J. Morris, instructor. "But each one has a definite duty to perform. Some girls will model more than once."

BOOTH CANNERY INSTALLS TWO FIRE HYDRANTS

Booth Cannery, Centerville, is reported to have installed two new fire hydrants at its plant, and in the future will be equipped in case of emergency. Two six-inch mains convey the water, and after tests made by Centerville Fire Department, it was estimated that 500 gallons of water could be pumped per minute, with a pressure of 250 pounds.

Fire department members found conditions satisfactory following these tests, and will now be able to give the same effective service that has been rendered previously when valuable property was threatened by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Dusterberry were week-end visitors in San Francisco. While in that city they attended a performance of "New Moon."

New officers of the club presided at the business meeting which followed the luncheon.

Election of the following officers was announced by the nominating committee: Mrs. W. L. McWhirter, president; Mrs. Lannes Sharman, vice-president; Mrs. Henri Edouard Salz, secretary, and Mrs. Frank Dusterberry, treasurer.

Mrs. A. A. Hatch presented the annual report, and stated that during the last two years approximately 1,000 garments had been either made over or made new. During that period the club had also raised over $1,000 for welfare work.

DAIRY EXPANSION OVER CALIFORNIA IS VERY PROMISING

Bank of Italy Survey Shows Much Improvement Yet in Offing

Many factors point to the opportunity for extensive expansion of the dairy industry in California but, at the same time, much remains to be done to bring the state herds up to standard and to improve marketing conditions, according to a survey just completed by the Bank of Italy, F. T. Dusterberry, Centerville branch manager stated.

There is no reason why the prospective dairy man who is willing to "start from scratch" with a tested and infection free herd should not succeed if he has been wise in the selection of his land, if he installs a cost accounting system that will effectively point out economy in management, and if he has a reasonable amount of initial capital.

In the past eighteen months the bank and its affiliate, the Bank-Italy Agricultural Credit Corporation, have loaned a grand aggregate of over $15,000,000 to California livestock and dairy interests. While a portion of this has gone into dairy loans, a considerable amount of it was devoted to the re-stocking of the ranges and raising herd standards, according to Fred L. Washburn, vice-president and general manager of the credit corporation.

The survey indicates that prospective dairy owners or lessees should not misinterpret the fact that the state finds it necessary to import approximately 25,000,000 pounds of butter and 20,000,000 pounds of cheese yearly to supply its own needs; nor that an occasional market differential exists in favor of California dairy products. The practical problems such as the necessity for cow-testing, the elimination of defective stock from herds, and too intensive dairying in certain sections, are very real and very pressing.

The figures supplied to the bank in the survey are imposing, but the survey also points out that figures, by themselves, cannot tell the whole story. The outstanding favorable factor is that approximately $250,000,000 retail and $150,000,000 wholesale dairy products are marketed annually. There are some 625,000 milk cows two years or over in the state and the average yield per cow is 235 pounds of butterfat a year. This last figure compares favorably with the national average of less than 190 pounds.

CENTERVILLE TO CELEBRATE FINISH OF CITY PAVING

At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce, held Thursday, April 24, at El Lido restaurant, a discussion took place regarding the proposed celebration of the culmination of Main street's paving project. One suggestion was that a portion of Main street should be roped off for dancing and that a carnival be held in conjunction. Committeemen in charge of tentative plans for the event have been unable to learn the exact date of completion of the project, so nothing definite regarding it can be said.

F. T. Dusterberry, president of the chamber, reported that T. O. Morrison, farm advisor, was expected to be present at the next meeting to speak on the fruit question in this territory.

Twenty-five in all were present at this meeting, and several guests were also in attendance.

PICKARD IS MAYOR OF PLEASANTON

Council Honors Member With Another Term of Office

PLAN FOR DEDICATION

Fire House Service to be Decided Upon Next Monday Night

A. B. Pickard was re-elected mayor of Pleasanton by the council of that city, at its meeting Monday night after it had adjourned sine die following the canvassing of the votes cast at the municipal election, Monday, April 14.

Council declared A. B. Pickard and Frank Garatti duly elected as members of council after the canvassing of the votes. J. J. Amaral was the defeated nominee.

After the adjournment city clerk, C. Letham, presided while the votes were cast for mayor. Pickard was re-elected unanimously.

Granting permission to Hugh Sinclair, city engineer, to purchase several needed water meter boxes constituted the main item of business transacted by council. The session Monday night was one of the shortest council has held in many months.

None of the appointive offices of the city, which include the city judge, city attorney, city engineer, fire chief, marshal and superintendent of streets, were filled, the present office holders retaining their position. Council plans at its next regular meeting to make its appointments. It is said that there will be no changes in the personnel of the city employees.

Members of council will meet next Monday night with the fire department to consider plans for the official dedication of the new fire house. It is now planned to consummate the program for the dedication and to hold an interesting service within the near future.

Stop Before Passing School Bus Loading Or Face Arrest

Rigid Enforcement of This Law Is Ordered By Chief of Highway Patrol

Rigid enforcement of the law requires drivers of motor vehicles to come to a stop immediately before passing school buses loading or unloading school children was ordered this week by Eugene W. Biscailuz, superintendent of the California Highway Patrol.

Pointing out that nearly one-third of the traffic fatalities are children under nine years of age, Biscailuz instructed inspectors and squad captains to pay particular attention to this phase of enforcement.

The state law requires motor vehicles to stop before passing busses loading or unloading children and to proceed then at a speed not greater than ten miles per hour and with "due regard for the safety of the children," the county board for approval.

Now is the time to have the motor and chassis thoroughly cleaned, getting rid of the winter mud and the old caked grease and oil. It will also give the opportunity of checking over for loose rivets, bolts, etc.

FIRE TRUCK FOR COUNTY USE IS TO BE SOUGHT

Chief Graham Suggests Castro Valley As Location

Pleasanton will be host to the Alameda County Firemen's Association at its monthly meeting on May 8, it was announced this week by Will Graham, Pleasanton fire chief. The association has a membership of more than 260 and it is anticipated that upwards of 200 will attend the meeting here.

Plans for the procuring of a fire truck for county use occupied the greater portion of the time of the executive committee meeting held in Hayward Monday night. It is the plan of the firemen to propose to the county supervisors that they appropriate a sum of $5,000 for the purchase of a fire truck which would be located centrally in the county, and be available for all sections of the county.

It was the plan of Chief Graham to have the truck housed at Castro Valley. "That would be a central location," Graham said, "making the truck only a few minutes run from any part of the county. The Castro Valley fire house has room to house the new truck."

"One truck will do to start with, but the county should have at least three or four. Pleasanton and Murray townships comprise nearly half of the entire area of Alameda county, and there are only two fire fighting crews in the section—Pleasanton and Livermore."

"Should there be a bad fire in that section it would be more than likely out of control before assistance could be rendered by outside help."

The supervisors will be asked to oil and burn off the grass on the county highways before the grain ripens, it was stated. The state highways are being so treated it was pointed out, and a like precaution should be taken on the county thoroughfares, the firemen held.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC MAKES ENVIABLE SAFETY RECORD

Half Billion Passengers Are Carried Without Loss of Single Life

Transportation upwards of half a billion passengers a cumulative distance of more than fifteen billion miles in the last ten years without death in steam-train accident to a single passenger, is the record of Southern Pacific Company on its Pacific Lines, it was revealed here by J. W. Sheffield, local agent.

A decade of operation of its lines in six western states under the strictest safety rules and competent employees has made possible this extraordinary record.

In the ten years just ended a total of 404,709,492 passengers not including persons traveling on free transportation, were carried an aggregate distance of 15,915,677,462 miles, or the equivalent of 639,132 times around the earth over the Pacific Lines.

Last year 33,600,094 revenue passengers traveled a total of 1,528,663,083 miles over the same part of Southern Pacific's system.

While stating that railroad safety depends on the perfect functioning of many human and mechanical factors the use of the longest automatic block signal system maintained by any railroad in the world was paramount feature in Southern Pacific's safety program.

LIONS CLUB WILL HAVE PARTY SOON

Charter Night Program For Pleasanton Members Planned

PROJECTS ARE DISCUSSED

Boy Scout Work Receives Interest of New Service Club

Charter night for the Pleasanton Lions Club was tentatively set for Tuesday, May 20, and plans are being made to entertain some 200 visiting Lions from the Golden Gate Council, of which Pleasanton will be a member club after the charter is awarded that organization.

The club at its meeting Tuesday evening at Ratti's Restaurant, Pleasanton, decided to hold the charter night program at Castlewood Country Club, provided suitable arrangements could be made.

Word has been received by President J. Arendt that practically every club in the district will be represented at the Charter night program, some of the clubs stating that they would be present 100 percent. Definite announcement of the place for the meeting will be made at the next meeting of the club, when the committee appointed to make the arrangements will report back.

This week's meeting was devoted entirely to business, which consisted of appointment of committees and discussions of what phase of civic work the Lions should first attempt. Boy Scout work was given considerable thought by the Lions, and the club undoubtedly will sponsor a Scout troop in Pleasanton.

Louis Serrard, president of the Golden Gate Council, was the speaker of the evening. He told the Lions of the principals of Lionism and devoted a large portion of his address pointing out the benefits of united effort, and the fallacy of too much individualism.

Pleasanton Lions started with a charter membership of twenty-three and at all of the meetings so far there have been at least twenty in attendance. It is the plan of the club to increase the membership to forty within the next few weeks as it has been figured that there are that many classifications of businesses and professions here which may be represented in Lionism.

A membership committee consisting of Dr. M. E. Eastman, chairman, Hans Hansen, John J. Amaral and Lloyd H. Rhodes, was appointed by President Arendt to conduct the membership drive. Any one wishing to join the

FIELD LEGUME TOUR IS MADE ON WEDNESDAY

Several score of Pleasanton residents visited a number of ranches in Pleasanton township Wednesday afternoon on a tour of inspection of the vetch and field peas under different conditions. The trip was made by automobile under the direction of T. O. Morrison, county agent, United States Department of Agriculture.

The party met at Pleasanton city hall at 1:30 p. m. and first went to Meadow Lark dairy field where they saw some fifty acres of common and purple vetch. The second stop was made at the Manuel Lopez ranch.

At the Lopez ranch the party viewed common and purple vetch, sweet clover and other legumes. At this farm it was explained the result when the crops were planted alone, when planted with a nurse crop, when drilled, and when broadcast.

The third stop was made at Casterson Bros. There the group saw field legume plots of the Division of Agronomy, showing the four varieties of vetch, seven varieties of peas, vetch with oats as nurse crop, and peas with oats as nurse crop.

The fourth stop of the afternoon was at the ranch of Walter Block. There common and purple vetch and seven varieties of field peas were viewed.

T. C. Mayhew, assistant state leader of farm advisors, accompanied the party and explained the club may receive full information from any of the above members.

Township Register Staff Attends Al. Barnes Circus

Wednesday night, April 23, the editor and publisher of the Township Register, Norman H. Parks, together with the entire office staff and correspondents of that publication, were transported back to childhood days when they attended a performance of the Al. G. Barnes circus, in San Jose. With Mr. and Mrs. Parks were Miss Laura Dutra, Miss Julia Ruschin, Virginia Burrington, Lester Narvaez, Melvin Skow, Jackson Townsend, Gordon Justus, and Frank Ferry.

An atmosphere of festivity overhung the circus lot, and upon entering the big top the Parks' party was confronted with carnival sights and sounds. Animals of about every variety were represented, and the clown crop proved to be abundant. Many amusing and thrilling acts were put on, and diversions were legion.

As usual at a party of this kind funny things happened; generally they do when a group of mature persons try to act juvenile. In the early evening, when entering the lot, one of the younger members of the party broke all records for obtaining and consuming "hot dogs." "Hungry" might be an appropriate name for this person, for, according to reports, he had purchased and eaten one in about nothing flat. Another incident was when said "Hungry" parked a very delicious, cold, vanilla ice cream cone in the sleeve of Mr. Parks' new coat, but that didn't matter much.

The girls haven't had much to say about how they got down from the stands when the circus was over. One man perhaps was in danger of losing his scalp, for when the Register reporter let go of Lester Narvaez she started to slip, and in trying to retain her balance accidentally grabbed an innocent bystander by the hair. It was a relief to get on the ground because innocent bystanders can look vicious when they get their hair pulled. The writer knows, for one was looking at her.

Also, when the party got to the parking station where the cars had been left, one of the drivers, when backing out, hooked a bumper into a fence, making it necessary to have the car lifted to one side before driving was possible. Some one suggested that a trick elephant be borrowed from the circus for this purpose, but another interposed with the information that as long as Lester Narvaez was present no elephant would be needed to move the car; he being strong enough to move said vehicle single handed, which he almost accomplished.

Regardless of such slight drawbacks those present were unanimous in acclaiming the success of the evening, and expressing hopes that another one like it would follow at an early date.

Let Advertisements Teach You How, When, and Where

In every community are persons having similar or like desires, for example, ownership of an automobile, clothes, food, amusements, and so on. Advertising on these specific things reaches this group, permitting it to weigh and analyze the question of which one to buy. It is this stability of desires—the fact that many have like or similar desires—plus the possibility of a change in the means of satisfying them that makes advertising the benefactor.

The whole business of relieving fatigue, thirst, cold, hunger, and all other human wants is directed or motivated by a natural impulse, and therefore, becomes an inherent activity. Advertising quickens the buying appetite of the consumer by appealing to some desire already in mind. If a person is thirsty, the question is "Where can I satisfy it?" then "What?" Today, through advertising, "Where" becomes simultaneous with "What," because of the general widespread distribution of the various beverages. In like manner and for the same reason other natural impulses are satisfied.

Suppose, however, advertising were discontinued. Then the only way of learning about this or that commodity would be through word of mouth—a long round-about method. What would happen to the merchant who depends upon turnover for profit? Surely sales would be fewer, and turnover slower; there would be a lesser variety in merchandise for selection, probably higher prices to offset less profit on bigger volume, and so on.

Advertising is the economic force which enables the merchant to instantly reach thousands with the news and information concerning the merchandise he offers. Advertising builds for the future; it yields sales momentum or another name for good will.

DECOTO CHAMBER SPONSORS DANCE FOR BOY SCOUTS

A very successful and enjoyable dance was given Saturday night, April 26, by Decoto Chamber of Commerce at the Decoto Grammar school auditorium. Music was furnished by Whaley's Black and Tan orchestra, and door prizes were presented by A. Ferrante, J. P. Fallette, Ray's Sandwich Shop, J. L. Olson, M. L.

Avilla, Ray's garage, and M. and S. Tile Company.

Attendance was exceptionally large and reports were that those present passed an enjoyable evening. Proceeds from this affair are to assist in financing Decoto Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America.

A cement walk has been laid in front of the Decoto fire house, which improves the appearance of the property to a great extent.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH IS VERDICT OF CORONER

Tuesday morning, April 29, a verdict of accidental death was brought in by the coroner's jury at the inquest conducted by Coroner Grant D. Miller and Deputy Coroner Walter Fiere, in connection with the death of Wilson Coates, forty-seven-year-old Niles Canyon ranch owner, and John Marcus Joyle, seventy-one year old traveler, who died after falling from a bicycle on Mission San Jose road; fracturing his skull, from which injury he expired, Sunday morning, April 27.

Wilson Coates was dragged to his death by a runaway colt, according to reports, on Saturday, April 19. George King, a neighbor, found the remains of Coates Monday morning, April 21, after missing the man and going in search of him. Late reports were to the effect that Coates had been breaking in a colt, which threw him, and in falling one arm became entangled in a rope, from which he was unable to free himself. Coates had been dragged through brush and weeds for approximately 250 yards, and when found was almost unrecognizable.

The rancher was buried in a St. Helena cemetery Wednesday, April 23. Relatives surviving are Mrs. Lily Coates, a mother, of Yountville, and Mrs. Florence Edeline, of Pleasanton, a sister.

PARK WITH—(with 2-col. cut....
Climb the front tires into the curb when you park on a hill.
Put the car in reverse and set the brake.

If you do these things, simple as can be, you will find your car where you left it. If you don't you may find it wrapped around a telegraph pole at the bottom of the hill.

"Plain everyday carelessness, causes most of the trouble and most of the wrecks," E. W. Fuhr, regional manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, stated recently.

"There seems to be no reason why a motor car should be allowed to slide down hill," the Chevrolet dealer continued. "If these simple precautions are taken the car will stay right where it is put. Even if it is struck from behind, it will only be forced across the sidewalk into a building, if the wheels are pointed that way. The damage caused is likely to be far less than if the car rolls down the hill gaining speed every second.

"Then there's the system good drivers use to drive down steep hills using the motor as a brake.
If the hill is steep, shift into second gear and take the foot off the accelerator, and let the motor hold back the car. This plan is particularly useful in mountain driving, although it applies equally to city driving. This plan saves wear and tear on brakes and gives the driver complete control of his car all the time.

"If second gear fails to hold the car to the speed desired, shift into low. It is hard to find a hill where low gear will not keep the car under control.
"These simple precautions will prolong the life of the car you drive and may prevent serious trouble. With the steep hills of this section providing parking spaces for many cars it is well to observe these precautions. Too many cars and trucks have plunged downhill scattering destruction after them.

FIRE TRUCKS MUST HAVE PRIVILEGES

Drastic Action Threatened To Get Engines Their Right-of-Way

ABOUT EVERYONE GUILTY
Accidents Likely Unless Crowding of Streets
Is Eliminated

"Rushing into the street in front of the fire trucks has got to be stopped," Will Graham, fire chief, at Pleasanton, declared this week following a discussion of the matter by volunteered fire department members. Continuing, he said, "We have been lenient in this matter in the past, but if the residents of Pleasanton, especially boys on their bicycles, do not see fit to voluntarily obey the law which gives fire engines the right-of-way, drastic action shall be taken," Graham announced.

During the last fire at Dr. D. H.
McLaughlin's office two persons were nearly run down by the trucks, it was said. "While the greatest offenders are boys, they are by no means the only ones," Graham declared.

MEN, WOMEN OFFENDERS

"Men and women driving automobiles dash into the street with their cars at the first sound of the fire siren and cause our drivers no end of trouble," Graham continued. "There is the law to be invoked if the people of Pleasanton will not obey it of their own accord. We would dislike very much having to order the arrest of anyone on such a charge, but this will be done if the fire trucks are interfered with in the future.

"Fire trucks are always operated within the speed regulation inside or outside the city limits, but if they are to arrive on the scene in the shortest time possible they must have the right-of-way and be able to travel at the speed limit.

HELP AVOID ACCIDENTS

"We do not want to have any accidents, and several have been narrowly averted in the past, thanks to the careful handling of the trucks by the firemen and not to the consideration given them by motorists and pedestrians."

As Fire Chief Graham puts it up to the people of Pleasanton it would be showing lack of courtesy and lack of consideration for one's fellow citizens to continue the practice which he speaks of.

If one would consider for a moment what such folly is likely to bring about, no one in their right mind would be guilty of such an act. Suppose for instance that your house was afire and the engines were coming as fast as they could — then crash — some careless motorist dashed into the street and collided with the truck.
Perhaps by the time the truck was untangled from the crash the fire would be beyond control.

MAY KILL SOMEONE
Or on the other hand suppose it was a pedestrian or a boy on a bicycle who was hit. The result might be a death.

CLOTHES don't make the man, but a good appearance does have a lot to do with success in business. Most folks have learned that it costs no more to be properly dressed than it does to be careless or "freakish."
If we could find out just what effect our appearance has on others, we'd probably discover that it pays big to be particular.

What is true of personal dress is true of the printed matter that represents you or your firm.
You can't afford to use letterheads, invoices, statements, receipts—or even office forms—that look "cheap" or poorly printed. It pays big to be careful about such little things.

We believe that all of your stationery and office forms ought to be printed in the same shop, and at the same time, if convenient. Then they will be harmonious in design. If we produce them they will be fitting representatives of your business or professional standing.

Ask us about prices. We have a special plan that will save you money—if you don't delay too long.

NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

pair of Americans, we wish the parental slipper might be administered to cure them of this recklessness before a great tragedy occurs to throw an admiring nation into mourning.

A DEATH TRAP

WE ARE AFRAID that some day there is going to be a fatal accident at the railroad crossing just west of Sunol. We hope that our foreboding will not become a reality, but we do know that if a meeting of a train and an automobile occurs at that blind crossing there will be some sorrowful official or officials of a great railroad system, for the fault will be with the railroad and not the party who drives the car.

The official who could correct this dangerous situation doubtless has never been apprized of the menace to life that has been occasioned by the establishment of a supply department for railroad ties for the Sunol division at this point.

An automobilist approaching the crossing from the east and coming toward Niles, has his vision completely obstructed. For several hundred feet he cannot see the track nor see an approaching train coming from the east. Not until he actually reaches the track does the driver get a clear view of the railroad right-of-way. True there is a "wiggle-waggle" at this point, but it, too, cannot be seen until within a few feet of the Southern Pacific track. With the car making perhaps some unusual noise or the mind diverted, the bell may not be heard. A person's safety, then, lies alone in a caution that may impel him to bring his car to a dead stop at the edge of the track before venturing across.

If an accident does occur, no coroner's jury could hold the Southern Pacific blameless. Damages would be collected, doubtless in an amount greater than it would cost to remove the railroad ties, power saws, and workmen's quarters that now obstruct the free vision and menace life, to some other point away from the highway.

We believe that this matter has never been brought to the attention of proper authorities, or a death-trap of this kind would not continue.

The Register respectfully urges Southern Pacific executives to immediately issue orders that may abolish a public danger so grave that the grim reaper with his mythical scythe ever hovers over each driver as he passes—waiting, waiting expectantly for the grinding of brakes—the crash—and death!

WATCH GREASE CUPS

All oil, grease cups or caps should be checked over to see that they are in the proper condition. If any are broken they should be replaced immediately, for they are not only a grease or oil container, but keep the dust and grit out as well.

It is advisable on the approach of hot weather to drain the transmission and differential, flush out and refill with fresh oil of a little heavier grade.

POLISHING EASY

Since chromium-plated parts are now on most of our cars, the bright parts of the car are certainly easy to keep clean and shiny, for this chromium plating does not tarnish, and polishing is only needed occasionally. However, to do this bit of brushing up use a clean soft cloth, some water and just a little elbow grease.

No automobile owner should attempt to drive a car without first equipping it with a spare tire.

NEW BUILDING TO BE DEDICATED MAY 30th

Plans for the dedication of the Veterans' Memorial building, Niles, erected by Washington Township Post No. 195, American Legion, are practically complete, and this event will take place Memorial Day, May 30.

Furniture is now being placed in the building; first of it being brought to Niles Tuesday. This will be the final arrangement necessary for the building to be complete inside and outside.

In the garden a Thompson sprinkling system has been installed by Peterson's plumbing shop. This system is an underground arrangement, with concealed pipes in flower beds and lawns.

effort and time was expended by Mr. Kimber, and as a result local boys and girls were able to at least make an impression, and represent the locality at Sacramento.

Citizens of Washington township responded to the need of funds for transportation, and several groups gave entertainments and plays to help raise these. Chambers of Commerce appointed committees to raise the quotas of the various communities, and on summing up it shows that the whole township was back of the boys and girls when they competed at the contest. Faith in their ability, and efforts, was displayed, and it is the hope of the whole district that next year may be the year of victory for Washington, and already schemes, plans and an abundance of enthusiasm are in evidence when the coming competition is mentioned.
